

Register now for Jan. 25th event with 3 company presentations

For the first event of the year, the Great Lakes Angels is pleased to host three excellent companies.

The Great Lakes Angels are pleased to invite all accredited investors (members and non-members *) to the presentation of the following selected companies.

Feel free to share invite with other investors.

Alchemie

www.alchemie.com

Alchemie creates mobile learning technology for higher education, starting with the tough gateway courses of chemistry. We are creating a new touchscreen method for student success which will be tied to an analytic platform. By mapping intuitive learning processes, we are building an assessment method to benefit students and their instructors, as well as future employers.

Odeum

<http://www.odeumlearning.com>

Odeum helps teachers prepare students for the 21st century with engaging, immersive, virtual world role-playing simulations, allowing students to experience education for deeper understanding of subject matter. Serial entrepreneur and award winning Ian Natzmer has been involved in video game startups and education for over 10 years. Through extensive market research and product validation, his team has developed the first customizable role-playing, virtual reality - ready, platform for education.

Vartega Inc.

www.vartega.com

Vartega is a recycler of advanced materials - specifically strong and lightweight carbon fiber - used in the aerospace, automotive, wind energy, and sporting goods industries. Our current customers include additive manufacturing companies, automotive suppliers, and OEMs.

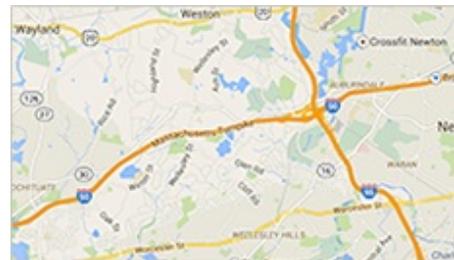

* Non-members may attend up to two events without Membership. Future meetings will require membership or invitation by a member until joining.

The Great Lakes Angels is a nonprofit corporation. The mission is to organize and mentor angel investors and provide a forum for them to grow in knowledge and wealth and foster more of the same - to help invest in entrepreneurial companies in the Region.
